

Spotlight Central – Ken Elkinson December 2008

We get a lot of music here and believe it or not, we try to get to everyone in a short minute. We try to help people create awareness for their work and hopefully people will hear it and say "wow, I like that" and spend their hard earned money to purchase the artist's work. Ken Elkinson's an incredible talent who's been releasing music for years. His Christmas disc arrived here in about October (I think) and I couldn't wait to feature it not only on our Christmas channels but here too.
