Looking for the perfect background for a romantic dinner or just had "one of those days" and need to kick back and relax, than have I found the CD for you. Midnight Conversation by Ken Elkinson is a collection of soothing piano solos with influences from Jazz and Classical Such songs as Waves, Reflections (Forgotten Days), Hope and, my favorite, the title track Midnight Conversation send the listener into a blissful retreat from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, allowing one to enjoy a sweet repose. Ken has written gently flowing compositions with depth and substance performed with both proficiency and creativity.

Ken began his love of music at the tender age of six. He has studied Classical, Jazz and Pop. While in college in Allentown, PA., he enrolled in composition and improvisation courses and joined the college rock band River Festival . After leaving his 9 to 5 job in 1996, Ken formed August Son Productions to produce and promote his recordings, as well as, two original screenplays. Midnight Conversation the CD debut in March of 1997 and has met with great success with air play currently on over forty radio stations internationally.

So if you're curled up in front of that warming fire or in need of a little "personal time", pamper yourself by turning on Midnight Conversation and enjoy!
