

Surfing Cowboys' Blog

Thoughts, observations, dreams and updates from the Surfing Cowboys Team

Music to enjoy while surviving Carmageddon

July 15, 2011

While the closure of the 405 freeway here in Los Angeles is horrifying weekend drivers. One man hopes to ease the traffic jam using his talent for music. Ken Elkinson a friend of Surfing Cowboys is releasing his music collection Music for Commuting for free via his website during the freeway closure. This act of generosity has in turn garnered Ken with an article in the New York Times, where he can be seen wearing a Surfing Cowboys "Charlie Don't Surf" t-shirt! Look out for Ken and his Surfing Cowboys t-shirt throughout the weekend as he talks with CBS, ABC, and CNN.

