

Dr. Christmas presents roundup of new Christmas CDs

Neenah's Gerry Grzyb, chairman of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh sociology department, begins to morph into Dr. Christmas in early October as the first of hundreds of new Christmas CDs arrive. With thousands in his collection, his "nice" list is tough to get on, but here are some of the best of '08 that made the cut.

Ken Elkinson – Generations of Yuletide

Slow, thoughtful interpretations of 16 carols fill Ken Elkinson's solo piano <http://www.kenelkinson.com> "Generations of Yuletide." This would be a great CD for drifting off to sleep, expecting magical Christmas dreams.
